

Wajiha Raza Rizvi

20-A, TECH Society

Canal Bank

Lahore

Pakistan

92 0300 945 1997

92 0321 945 1997

A Fulbright, FCOSAS, Chevening, and GIMD research scholar working for the government, public, and private sectors.

She is a media practitioner, educationalist, and researcher.

She has produced and directed about 20 TV commercials, 65 quiz shows, and 6 documentary films and supervised the production of 60 documentary films and 7 plays on classic stories for one-hour slot by graduate students University of the Punjab and Kinnaird College for Women (University) Lahore.

She was Project Director to set-up Hashmi Media Institute Karachi and Department of Film and Television, National College of Arts (NCA) Lahore.

She has also been associated to Government Polytechnic Institute for Women, Technical & Vocational Training Authority (TEVTA), Board of Technical Education, and London International Documentary Festival.

Wajiha is CEO of a nonprofit organization that collects the archives of Pakistani film and conducts research at the Film Museum Society.

She is a recipient of Chughtai Award for Excellence in Design by NCA.